Millinery the Principal Object of In-

Despite the treachery of March weather there is one attraction that brings all womenfolk forth. Millinery and the latest habilments at Kaufmann's store was the headline more important to the female mind than a political issue or a terrifying wreck. Here it is, that the fashions are shown that will determine the success or fate of many a summer girl, for the style now displayed will vary little till the autumn comes again. Therefore the importance of this exhibit and the cause for the early rush as if it were to see a matinee idol or an opera success. The store at Broad and Fourth Streets most certainly inviting; the decorations are delightful and in perfect taste; the blending of colors is a revelation to the uninitiated and it is wonderful to what numerous uses ribbons and other soft steeters of a woman's toliet can be put. For instance, there were some pretty hair synaments made entirely of ribbon into goebuds with green rubbor stems and moss foliage imiliating the real to a marrelous custom.

The little town of Fairmount, in Henrice county, suffered heavily in the rain torm of a day or two ago. Some of the streets were literally pulled to pieces by the running water.

Mayor Jeter said yesterday that he was Mayor Jeter said yesterday that he was thinking about ordering some ready-made streets from the North. Fairmount Avenue is but a vestige of its former self. The cobblestones in the gutters were washed up and ridges and guilles abound. Roads in the county also suffered very much. Mechanicsville, Turnpike is said to be decidedly in a bad way. A gentleman said yesterday that in some parts of it a golley washed out by the rain is big enough for a horse and wagen, to drive through.
